

WEDNESDAY WEEKLY – WEEK 18

Dear Parents,

We hope this message finds you well. Assessments are taking place across the campus allowing us to benchmark student progress and make adjustments for the months to come. We appreciate your support in encouraging your students to perform their best!

Upcoming Events:

Monday, Tuesday Jan. 20-21 - NGRT & MAP testing for Grades (1-10)

- Make sure that all devices are charged and ready

Wednesday, January 22nd - High School Final Exams begin

Friday, January 24 – High School Only – Exam Study Day at home (*should parents need to have their high school student attend, we will have a study location available)

Important Information:

In the efforts to achieve the objectives of the Dubai Social Agenda 33, and under the slogan “The Family is the Foundation of the Nation,” the Dubai Foundation for Women and Children has launched the Positive Family Program to enhance interaction and communication between family members in our community.

Click here for the Positive Parenting Program Manual. The manual is available only in Arabic.

Student Events:

The second AMPS Student Council general session was held last Thursday with officers and representatives from grades 4 –12. Previous student suggestions were actioned and reviewed. Some groups of students prepared for the upcoming International Day of Acceptance while others reviewed and reflected on the Wellbeing Survey student results leading to ideas to help their fellow classmates feel safe and cared for at school.

Have a wonderful day! ~ The AMPS Leadership Team