SAFEGUARDING TIPS:

Did you know that the minimum legal age for marriage in the UAE is 18 years. As child marriage is associated with increased risks of violence, limited education, and health problems.

Guardians should

- Prioritize Education: Supporting girls' secondary schooling is one of the most effective ways to prevent early marriage, offering better health and economic outcomes.
- Encourage Open Dialogue: Build trust with your children so they feel safe talking about their concerns regarding relationships or pressure from others.
- Empower Agency: Ensure children have a voice in decisions that affect them. Girls who are educated and empowered have a greater say in their future.
- Avoid Cultural Pressures: Recognize that cultural or traditional beliefs, rather than legal requirements, are often the driver of child marriage. Focus on the child's long-term well-being.
